

Women's Residential Program

Each woman who seeks addiction treatment needs much more than education about their disease. They need structure, support, and guidance to work towards a self-sufficient and healthy lifestyle.

Crossroads' Women's Residential Program offers:

- 30 Days Residential Treatment
- Intensive Outpatient Treatment (9+ hours weekly)
- Outpatient Treatment (1 session weekly)
- Co-Occuring Services

*Services based upon individual needs.

In addition to addiction treatment, here is what you can expect to gain from the Crossroads' Women's Residential program:

Special Connections Program

Welcome to Special Connections, southern Colorado's only residential addiction treatment program for women and their babies.

Special Connections benefits pregnant women who also suffer the following:

- Risk of relapse
- Inability to maintain abstinence with less frequent treatment contact.
- Minimal support for recovery
- Barriers to treatment

Goals of the program:

- ☉ Reduce, limit, or stop the use of substances during and after pregnancy
- ☉ Maintain the family unit
- ☉ Promote healthy lifestyle for mothers and babies

*Promoting a supportive and healthy environment
for mothers and their babies.*
